

What EnVus Divas Require of all Players:

Organize your schedule to accommodate both work and sports participation.

Remain in athletic physical condition as best as possible (there will be a lot of double hitter games).

Attend all practices with the mindset to improve as a player.

EnVus Divas are expected to arrive 1 hour prior to game time no later than 30mins and on time for practices. Failure to arrive at the required time frame will result in you not playing that game. (Head coach can over-rule)

Arrive early so as to be fully –prepared for the start of practice or games (note: We are required to play in the rain unless it is thundering and lightning, at which time the League has final say in game disposition).

Inform your Coach, Team Manager, or Captains at least one hour/day in advance that you may miss practice or a game due to schedule conflicts or unforeseen personal matters.

Provide your coach with advance notification of any scheduled game you plan to miss as soon as you know.

Wear your practice/Scrimmage gear and Jersey with pride and always look sharp.

Recognize that your first responsibility as an EnVus Divas sister is to meet and exceed expectations on and off the field. Your athletic performance is a reflection not just of you, but your team, your coach, and the OffDa Chain Kickball League.

Maintain a positive attitude at all times, we are family. We understand we will not always agree on everything but we will commit to resolve any team issues amongst ourselves and in a professional manner. (Disruptive and Disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated)

EnVus Divas players will comply with a minimum of 2 mandatory practices a week which is communicated and outlined at the beginning of each season. Failure to attend the 2 practice minimum requirement will result in your not being able to play in the game for that week. (Head Coach reserves the right to overrule)

EnVus Divas players will practice from 6:30-8:30 on Mon-Thurs (4days a week) until further notice is given of a practice schedule change. (Everyone on the team must attend at least 1 practice together)

Understand there will be a starting lineup and we will not deviate unless some unforeseen circumstances occur. Everyone will have the opportunity to play, however you may not get to play in every game.

EnVus Divas are expected to participate in Team Hosted Events as well as Events hosted by the league, OffDa Chain Divas, your participation shows commitment and respect for both your team and league.

Work with your Team Manager or Captains immediately if problems or concerns arise. (Follow chain of command and respect the team Hierarchy: Team Manager, Captains and Coaches) Under no circumstances should you go to the Coach first without going to your Team Manager or Captain.
